Dr. P. Nikolai Ehlers, the partner in charge of the aviation practice of Ehlers, Ehlers & Partner (Munich/Germany), is qualified as a lawyer both in Germany and in New York.

Mr. Ehlers regularly advises on aircraft and engine finance and lease transactions (German and cross-border leases, sale and purchase of aircraft and engines, registration of title and security interests, repossession). He has extensive experience of advising and representing airlines and their insurers in liability matters and conducting complex litigation involving international parties. His practice also focuses on regulatory issues, passenger rights, airport access, competition matters, alliances and code sharing, insolvency proceedings, tour operator liability regulation, CRS matters, maintenance contracts, licensing, corporate transactions, etc.

Mr. Ehlers holds degrees from the Cologne and the McGill Institutes of Air and Space Law. He is an officer of the European Air Law Association, a member of the advisory board of the Journal of Air Law and Commerce (SMU-Dallas) and of the German Journal of Air and Space Law (ZLW). He also holds offices in other professional organizations.

Mr Ehlers has written and co-written several books and numerous articles. He has spoken on air law topics in Europe (including the 2014 Aviation Conference of Studio Pierallini at Luiss Guido Carli University), the US, the Middle East, Asia and Australia. For many years he has organized the biennial Munich Liability Seminar of the European Air Law Association.
