

Professor LIU Hao

Graduated from China University of Political Science and Law (CUPL) as Ph.D. in Law, now working in BEIHANG University (BUAA, Beijing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics) as Director of Institute of Aviation Law and Standard and Deputy Director of National Research Center of Air Traffic Management Law and Standard.

Professor LIU is member of Drafting Committees for the following law and regulations in China.

1. Aviation Law
2. Regulation on Airspace
3. Regulation on Unmanned Aircraft System
4. Regulation on Air Traffic Management of General Aviation (revision)

In the ICAO RPAS Panel, Professor LIU is the member of the Working Group 5 (Operation of RPAS) and Small Unmanned Aircraft System Advisory Group (SUAS-AG). In JARUS (Joint Authorities for Rulemaking on Unmanned Systems), he is the Co-Chair of Working Group 2 (Operation) and the former Co-Chair of the Working Group 7 (Concept of Operation).

Professor LIU is also the member of the ICAO/UNOOSA Suborbital Commercial Flight Study Group.

Together with his team, Professor LIU provide consultation to State Air Traffic Control Commission of China, Civil Aviation Administration of China, and other governmental and military bodies on air and space law and policy issues.